

Farm-a-Q 2019

Tuckaway Farm

36 Captain Smith Emerson Road, Lee NH

Dear Farm-a-Q Guests,

We are ecstatic that you will be joining us on Sunday, July 14th from 12 – 4 for our eighth annual, locally grown, heritage and heirloom BBQ picnic hosted by Slow Food Seacoast! A special thank-you to Laurel & Chuck Cox and family for hosting the event this year. Below you will find some helpful information about the event. For specific questions please email us at slowfoodseacoast@gmail.com.

WHAT TO EXPECT

In addition to the delicious tastings of local heritage and heirloom foods you will enjoy children's nature-based craft activities, tabling by numerous local community organizations, a farm tour and strolls through Tuckaway's beautiful fields with plenty of animals to visit and a wild weeds foraging walk. There will also be samples from several local breweries. Please bring ID if you plan to sample and look under 35.

ACTIVITIES

Food: The event runs from 12 – 4 with food served between 1 -3. Activities will commence at 12:15 so come down early and set up your picnic site.

Local Food Groups: NH Food Alliance, NH Farm to School, Piscataqua Seed Project, Seacoast Permaculture, NH Community Seafood, Bedrock Gardens and many more will be on site to share their latest news.

Children's Activities: Many crafts from natural materials that suit all ages.

Music: Taylor River Band will be entertaining us with an Americana sound.

DIRECTIONS

Tuckaway is easy to get to and is right off of Rt. 155.

PARKING

Parking is well delineated and close to the event area. If you need to drop off chairs or need handicap access, please watch for signs as you enter the farm.

WHAT TO BRING

The picnic will be on a large field and picnic blankets or camp chairs would be helpful. There are few trees, as the site is held on an open field. Small EZ Up tents or sun umbrellas are recommended.

We encourage everyone to help us reduce trash and bring their own reusable picnic kit, plates, cups, silverware, napkins, water bottle and so on.

This is a farm so please wear appropriate shoes and clothing and use caution on the grounds.

Due to the nature of this event, the property owner has requested that dogs stay at home.
